

English

Session 2010 -13

Answer Any Five Question

THE QUESTIONS ARE OF EQUAL VALUE

1. Discuss Loyalties as a drama which deals with contemporary social issues.

OR

Attempt an analysis of Galsworthy's art of characterisation with special reference to Loyalties.

2. Attempt a critical appreciation of a poem The Marriage of True Minds or Strange Fits of Passion Have I Know.

3. Use the following phrases in your own sentences :

- a. At hand
- b. At random
- c. Cats and dogs
- d. ABC
- e. As well as

4. Match the following as antonym :

- |              |       |             |
|--------------|-------|-------------|
| a. Hard      | (i)   | Superfluous |
| b. Up        | (ii)  | Humble      |
| c. Strange   | (iii) | Soft        |
| d. Proud     | (iv)  | Down        |
| e. Essential | (v)   | Common      |

5. Change the voices of the following sentences:

- a. Ram gave me a present .
- b. Mohan found his lost book.
- c. Do you teach me?
- d. What are you looking for ?
- e. Mr Tom teaches us English.

6. Correct the following sentences :

- a. I am ill since Monday
- b. He saw an apple to fall.
- c. He more you hate the worst it will be for you.
- d. The book is in the table.
- e. I am go.

7. Make a précis of the following passage giving a suitable title:

Knowledge is a vast limitless sea whose depth it is difficult to fathom. Sincere seekers after knowledge spend the whole span of their lives and still they are unable to partake of its gifts in full measure. Newton in all humility confessed that all along his life he has been simply picking pebbles on the shore of knowledge . There are however persons who simply skin the surface and labour under the delusion that they have got everything. This little knowledge gets into their heads.

MEMO